

Joann E. Gress

February 9, 1937 - February 12, 2019

Joann E. Gress, 82, lost her battle with dementia and Alzheimer's disease on February 12, 2019, surrounded by her loved ones and the caring staff of Grove Manor in Groce City. She was born in Pittsburgh on February 9, 1937, to the late William H. Sr. and Rita O'Connor Staib. After meeting her husband, William "Bill" Gress Sr., Joann and Bill moved to Slippery Rock to run a family diner and raise their three children. She was a long time employee of Slippery Rock University in the food service department before using her experience to become the dietary director for several state hospitals in Pittsburgh. Upon retiring, Joann moved back to Slippery Rock with her husband to be close to their family. Joann enjoyed her independence as well as spending time with her loved ones. She was an avid traveler that could often be seen enjoying the sun in St. Petersburg, Florida. She also loved fishing with her grandchildren, playing bingo, shopping on QVC, yelling at refs and coaches during Steelers games, and spoiling her grand and great-grandchildren. Joann was often the go-to babysitter for generations of her family and with good reason as she was truly a caring and loving woman.

Joann was preceded in death by her husband who was the love of her life, her parents, her sisters Shirley Wilson and Nancy McKeen.
