

Margaret Emeline Ross

July 13, 1923 - October 10, 2011

Margaret Emeline Sloan Ross, 88, of Cherry Valley, passed away Monday evening at the VNA Inpatient Hospice in Butler, PA after an acute illness. Born on July 13, 1923 in Cherry Valley, she was the daughter of the late Henry L. and Annie McGinnis Sloan. Margaret graduated from the Eau Claire High School and enrolled in nurses training at Saginaw Osteopathic Hospital in Saginaw, MI. When she returned to PA, she was employed as the post master for the Eau Claire Post Office for 26 years before retiring. Margaret was a life long member of East Unity Presbyterian Church where she served as pianist, choir member, soloist, as well as a member of the Women's Trio. She also taught young adult Sunday School class for over 40 years. She was a member and treasurer of Ruth Fleming missionary society for over 45 years. She served as secretary treasurer of the East Unity Cemetery Association for 11 years and was a member of North Butler Music Club. Margaret enjoyed music, flowers, reading but above all, she loved her family. Margaret was married to the late Frank M. Ross Jr, her husband for 64 years. She is survived by one sister: Alice Altmire of Boyers, PA. One brother: Walter Sloan of Grove City, PA. A number of nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents and husband, Margaret was preceded in death by her adolescent son Michael in 1956. One sister: Betty McCurdy and two brothers: Harold and Donald Sloan. Friends will be received at the H. Jack Buzard Funeral Home (Main St.) in Eau Claire, on Thursday the 13th from 4-7PM. The Funeral Service will immediately follow at 7PM with the Rev. Paul Schaeffer officiating. Interment will take place at the East Unity Cemetery.
