Terry was a longtime avid golfer, whether it is in a league or benefit golf outings. He also looked forward to many RV trips he and his wife Sherri enjoyed from Maine to California to spending the past two winters in the Sarasota, Florida area.

Surviving are his wife, the former Sherri Sankey with whom was married nearly twenty-six years; children Theresa Johnson of Oklahoma, Chelsey Bean of Pittsburgh, and Jereme (Heather) Bean of West Sunbury; four grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren; brothers James (Vickie) Moore of Leesburg and Delbert (Denise) Moore of Mercer; his mother-in-law Helen Sankey of West Sunbury; many nieces and nephews.
