

Alice Pihoker

August 9, 1957 - May 14, 2024

On May 14, 2024, Alice Pihoker, daughter of Alice Ann (Koslosky) Pihoker and the late Francis J Pihoker, passed away peacefully at the age of 66. Born August 9, 1957, she grew up in Coopersburg, Pennsylvania, attended school at Southern Lehigh in Center Valley, Pennsylvania, and went on to earn a degree in communications at Duquesne University.

Alice worked for a number of radio stations throughout her career - including WAMO Radio, WDVE, and C93. She also acted as a disk jockey and concert security for DiCesare Engler Productions. Alice was an avid quilter. She gave back to her community through volunteering at the Foxburg Free Library. Alice was known by many through her work at Central Electric Co-Operative and later through her dispatch work for Gardenscape. Alice was a devoted member of St Michael the Archangel Roman Catholic Church of Emlenton.

Alice is survived by her grandson Adrian; son John (Erica) Billetdeaux; siblings Frank (Dori) Pihoker, Catherine (William) Vanderwilt, and Suzanne (Lillian) Pihoker; and her mother Alice (widowed). There will be a public memorial for Alice on June 29, 2024; further information will be posted on social media by family.

“ *Dear John and Family
Our condolences and comfort for you (John) and her extended families . Have many memories of your mom and you John . I was saddened to know your mom had sold her house and moved . Knowing she would be closer to you put joy in my heart . She always had lots to share about her grandson ❤️ She had a huge Heart for all she had contact with. Your in our Prayers
