“ My deepest condolences to your family. The loss of those whom we love is never easy to accept. But God does provide comfort and hope needed to help us cope. These verses have comforted me so many times. Acts 24:15 and Psalms 46:1

“ So many wonderful memories of Aunt Barb. Shopping trips when she and I would take off and leave the old Fuddy Duddies(Mom and Aunt Gerry). Off we went going our own way, which often lead to a sweet treat or two. Her love of animals, such as Duke with the crooked nose or Cecil who would rattle the pop bottles by his box, showed the softer side of my beloved Aunt. She will be missed by many but she has so many that she missed waiting for her in the arms of our Lord. As I sit with my sisters laughing and talking, I will remember her, my Mom Maxine and Aunt Gerry sitting at the kitchen table drinking coffee, talking and laughing. Uncle Russ, I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.
