

Bradley Joe Myers

October 15, 1956 - February 12, 2025

Bradley Joe Myers, 68, of Parker, PA died unexpectedly on Wednesday , February 12th at his residence. Born October 15, 1956 in Butler, PA, he was the son of Donald "Jody" Myers and Poppy Rose Kriebel Myers who both preceded him in death.

Brad graduated from A.C.Valley High School in 1974. He was employed after high school at ASR and then continued his employment for many years at the Parker Glass Container Corporation. After the glass plant shut down in Parker, he transferred to Glenshaw Glass for many years. He was also employed with ETSS in various locations.

He was an avid Pittsburgh Pirate and Pittsburgh Steeler fan and rarely missed a game that was televised. He also enjoyed hunting, golfing and riding his dirt bikes and ATV's. Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister Deborah Myers Smith and a nephew Dylan Smith. Surviving are sister Marcy Myers Schlueter (Dave) of Clarion, PA and McCormick, SC and a niece, Dr. Derika Schlueter of Gainesville, FL. Brad leaves behind a very special friend, Kathy Glosser, as they journeyed through life together. Also surviving are many cousins of both the Myers and Kriebel families.

There will be a memorial service at the Buzard funeral home on April 15th at 2 p.m. officiated by Reverend Daniel R. Myers

“ So many memories Tom and I had with Cheese! And, he and Tom way before I came into the picture!
I'll miss knowing he isn't around this realm any longer. I'd like to think they're up there discussing the Bucs!
