

Carl "Phil" Slaughenhoup

August 24, 1937 - November 12, 2021

CARL P. "Phil" SLAUGENHOUP, 84, of Parker passed away Friday evening (11-12-21) at Butler Memorial Hospital following an illness.

Born in Sligo, Pa. on September 24, 1937, he was son of the late James R. and Harriet Thomas Slaughenhoup.

He was married to the former Norma Fleming on April 8, 1960 and she survives.

"Phil" was employed by former Penn-Drake (now Calumet-Penreco) of Karns City as a truck (tanker) driver retiring in the early nineties with over thirty years of service.

He enjoyed lawn mower repairing from buckets of parts to complete tune-up repair.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two daughters: Brenda (Todd) Courson of Parker and Lori Cooper of Foxburg; grandchildren: Cody Cooper, Allie Courson, and Emily Courson; great-grandson Carter Shook; one brother: William E. (Mary) Slaughenhoup of Parker, and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by parents, sister Miriam Kuhns; brothers Frank, James M., and Ken Slaughenhoup.

A private family visitation and funeral service was held Monday at Buzard Funeral Home in Parker, and he was laid to rest later on Monday at Cedarview Memorial Park in Strattenville.

“ Phil fought for all working men and women, many of which have a better life today because of him. Hard shell on the outside, but a good man and good heart on the inside. He brightened everyone's day with a little chuckle. Rest In Peace. Sincere sympathies to his family.

“ So sorry to hear of Phil's death. Our deepest sympathy & prayers to Norma. Brenda, Lori and extended family. I will always remember our days at Penreco and also the later years when we would see Phil & Norma at times. It was always nice to visit with them. Phil will definitely be missed. RIP Phil.
