

Carole Sue Clark

June 9, 1942 - March 9, 2012

CAROLE SUE "Dub" CLARK, 69, of Sligo passed away Friday night (03-09-12) in the emergency room at Clarion Hospital following a two week illness. Born on June 9, 1942 in Kissinger Mills, Clarion Co., she was daughter of the late Bruce E. and Mary E. Gorman Simpson. She was married to Edward N. Clark on April 26, 1963. Carole was protestant by faith. Graduating from Union Joint Schools in Rimersburg in 1960, she became employed at the former Glass Containers at Parker, the custodial staff at Union Joint Schools, and later at Clarview Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Sligo. At Clarview, she was employed in the housekeeping department for over ten years. "Dub" was a skilled cook who loved to not only cook for her family, but enjoyed employment as a cook at various restaurants in the Sligo-Rimersburg area. In addition to her love of husband and son, she was well known as a devoted grandmother loving all seven grandchildren. Carole was also fond of animals, and enjoyed the company of her present dog, "Weinie". Surviving are her husband Ed, and one son and wife: Edward Scott and Amy Clark of Fryburg; seven grandchildren: Krystal Dawn, April Renee, and Edward Scott, Jr. Clark; Jake Becker, Amanda, Marissa, and Zephaniah Vickers; two great-grandchildren: Nicholas Beichner, Jr. and Mariah Jo Troup; three sisters: Gail (Eddie) Maxim of Youngstown, OH, Becky (Jim) Sleighter of Kissinger Mills, and Linda (Bernie) Gano of Clarion; two brothers: Eugene Simpson of Butler and John Simpson of Huey. "Dub" was preceded in death by three sisters: June Divins, Peggy Lou Simpson, and Sally Kriebel and six brothers: Edward,

Billy, James, Eric, Junior Bruce, and Larry "Pep" Simpson, the last who passed on Feb. 13, 2012. Friends may call from 2-4 and 6-8 PM today (Mon.) at the West Freedom United Methodist Church, Pa. Route 368, West Freedom (near Parker), and at the church for an hour preceding the funeral service. Funeral service at 11:00 AM Tuesday with Rev. Bessie Maihle, retired United Methodist pastor, officiating. Interment in Grandview Cemetery at Sligo.
