“ To : Dan

I wish you can hear me. Do you remember what that the first day we met? It is Nov 30,2005 only 2 more day I can tell we know each other for 15 years. We met in the airplane flight from Taiwan to LAX. You sit behind me at that time I can't find my passport. Flight attendant and Air hostess keep coming back to help me look for passport but no one found. Time past by I got up and talk to the man behind me “ If my son get up please tell him don't cry I be right back I'm going to use the restroom. That the first conversation with you.

I came back I saw you waving hand with holding passport and hand it to me. I open it and it is my passport. I saw empty seat beside you then I decided to sit beside you and make a conversation with you and I told you my husband have passed away 2 days ago you asked me about funeral and I told you I don't know any of that then you give me your emails in case I need some help. And that what our relationship begin.

We have been travel 16 states together you told me only one state you never been there is Hawaii. You told me get a camper And you never make it there.

Now we are in different world but it not means our memories will go away. You are good man and kindness and great Father to my son. I don't want you to worries anything I can take care of it believe me. And I want you to let go everything in this world and stay happiness in your world. Think about God God is good God is real tell him you want to be with him and he will come.

*We will alway miss you
