

Dean Raymond Corbett

June 24, 1947 - March 11, 2024

Dean Raymond Corbett, 76, originally from Eau Claire, passed away on Monday due to natural causes at the Grove Nursing Home in Harmony. He was born on June 24, 1947, to the late Brown and Myrtle Irene Corbett.

Dean was a big fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Penguins. He also enjoyed watching stock car races, building model cars, John Deere tractors, Penn State football, pet dogs, and Special Olympic bowling.

Dean is survived by his sister, Joyce, and her husband, John Brosnahan Jr. of Emlenton. A Sister in law, Judy Corbett. He also leaves behind his nieces Holly Brosnahan, Sheila Huneycutt, Susan (Michael) Hopf, and Jessica Hazercock, as well as his nephew Christopher (Auntouch) Linker and many great nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Gerald "Jerry" Corbett, and his infant sister, Ann Etta.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Eau Claire Presbyterian Church or Special Olympics in Dean's memory.

“ I enjoyed reconnecting with Dean at the Moniteau 60's reunions. We got caught up on events from years ago. I often think of you guys when driving past the home you all grew up. In time you will enjoy your memories but for now, allow yourselves to grieve. Sending my deepest sympathy to Joyce and the other family members. Susan Fowler Marshall ”
