

Debbie Jordan Leavy

March 31, 1957 - May 24, 2025

Debbie Barger Jordan Leavy, 68, didn't get to ring the cancer bell, but she rang the bell to heaven on Saturday, May 24. She passed away after a courageous battle with cancer at her home with her family by her side. She was born in Butler on March 31, 1957, and was the daughter of the late Charles D. and Shirley A. McElhattan Barger.

Debbie was a 1975 graduate of the Allegheny-Clarion Valley High School. She was the owner-operator of Rainbow Christian Preschool in West Freedom for many years.

She had a passion for reading and writing. Attending Trinity Point Church of God in Clarion brought her great joy. She loved shopping and had a unique hobby of collecting Amazon boxes. Hosting parties, watching Hallmark movies, and rearranging furniture were also among her favorite activities. In addition, she became a snowbird, spending her winters in Florida. Traveling was another one of her passions, with Hawaii, Alaska, St. Martin, and Disney World being among her favorite destinations. She loved spending time with her girls and cherished becoming a grandmother. Debbie had a beautiful smile that could light up any room.

She is survived by her Husband, Richard Leavy, whom she married on October 14, 2022. Two daughters: Kelly (Doug) Barrett and Courtney Andryka. Her Grandchildren: Carter, Jordyn, Jackson, Kendall and Cole. A sister: Pam (Butch) Gruver. Brother: Don (Alesia) Barger. Her nieces and nephews, with whom she has a special bond. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, David Jordan, and son-in-law, Aaron Andryka.

Friends and family will be received at the H. Jack Buzard Funeral Home in Parker (201 S. Wayne) on Wednesday from 6-8pm, and Thursday from 1-3pm & 6-8pm. Also, on Friday from 10am-11am at the Trinity Point Church of God in Clarion, Pa., Funeral service will follow at 11am at the Church with Pastor Bruce Wilson Officiating.

In Lieu of flowers memorial donations in her honor may be made to Trinity Point Church of God in Clarion or to VNA of Venango County Hospice.

“Debbie and I became friends in the fall of 2021, she had lost her first husband in June of 2021 and my husband Rob had passed two months later in August. We attended a Grief Share group at our church and struck up a wonderful friendship, she was so much fun and was always so positive and her smile was infectious. I thank our Lord for bringing her into my life.

“To all of Debbie’s family I extend my condolences from my home in TX. Although Debbie and I have been separated by many miles, for many years, we remained close friends and when we talked it was like we were never apart. I love you Debbie and I will see you again. And I imagined you today dancing and laughing in the loving arms of our dear savior, Jesus.
