“ To all of Denis's family - our deepest sympathy to you all. When dad was in the hospital and then subsequently Sunnyview, Denis was good to take Maddie and they became fast friends. He sent me various pictures of Maddie to keep her in my memory. I hope someone from the family will take care of her as well as Denis did....he loved her so much. Poor Maddie lost 3 owners in her 6 yrs. of living. Denis was one of the most talented people I know with his pictures and carvings, etc. He will be missed. This is a good picture of him. Relieved he is now out of pain.

“ Denis

words can not express the sadness , long time friend of over 30 yrs , you influenced me so much that I cant even explain because nobody but you and I could ever understand , you helped so many times in my life trials , and I will never be able too thank you enough, the friendship and respect we had for each other was indescribable , and I know it can never be matched by any other , you picked me up in my worst of times in my life , and I did what I could do too help you thru your trials and tribulations . good and not so good times , you always had words of wisdom too share with me , too sooth and settle my rough times and emotions , Thank you my friend , little projects that you seemed too figure out for us too do together too keep my mind off of things I couldn't figure out too handle , I thank you ! you made me maintain my sanity thru such rough times , a man of few words but many loving actions that I cant explain and I cant thank you enough ,you helped make me the man I am today , how can I ever thank you enough ? you've shown me so many things and taught me so much that I could in no way ever repay you , times when my life was literally falling apart , neither one of us could afford too do anything , you took me camping at Coopers lake , you couldn't afford it , and neither could I , but you knew I needed the time too sort things out , I'll never forget that weekend , we just sat and talked all weekend around a fire day and night , you and I , that was all , I knew right then , you didn't have too do that for me , nor could you really afford too do it , but you felt you needed to do it for me , I learned right then what a true friend was all about ! Small projects that you figured out for us to do together too kept my mind off of my personal heartbreaks , you made them seem so much easier too deal with . I thank you my friend , and ill never forget you buddy !!May the good Lord bless and keep you from now on knowing that you changed my life from a lonely time in my personal life too a life of caring once more , and I'll never forget what you said , " they may be gone but they can never forget your sincerity , it will haunt them for eternity --lol !!! God Speed my friend may you rest and rest well in peace " I Love you my brother like none other !! save me a seat by the fire !!
