

Dennis M. Kohlmeyer

January 11, 1940 - November 11, 2019

DENNIS M. KOHLMAYER, 79, of Hilliards, Pa. passed away Monday (11-11-19) morning at UPMC-Presbyterian in Pittsburgh following a brief illness.

Born near Clintonville, Pa. on January 11, 1940, he was the son of late Ronald M. "Buss" and Myrtle Lucille Ekis Kohlmeyer.

He was married to the former Ann Corbett who survives.

He was a member of Bethel United Methodist Church of Eau Claire.

A graduate of the former Northern Butler County School Dist., he attended and graduated from Grove City College with a degree in Chemical Engineering.

He began employment with the former Koppers Chemical Co. (later Indespec) of Petrolia. He retired as Asst. Plant Mgr. with over forty years of service at the Petrolia location

In addition to chemical engineering, Mr. Kohlmeyer enjoyed many years with the love of farming, raising cattle and planting and harvesting various grains.

He was an active member and longtime board member of the Farm Bureau of Butler County.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three daughters and families: Jacki (Bruce) Hettinger of Coburn, Pa., Chelly (Darin) Kohlmeyer of Hilliards, and Kim (Kent) Wheeler of Marblehead, Mass.; son Jeff (Elaine) Kohlmeyer of Kittanning; nine grandchildren whom he adored; brother Gary (Irene) Kohlmeyer of Parker (near Eau Claire); nieces and nephews.

Private funeral service was held Wednesday, November 14, 2019 at Buzard Funeral Home in Eau Claire with burial following at Eau Claire Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials to Bethel United Methodist Church, Eau Claire, Pa. 16030.

Cemetery Details

Eau Claire Cemetery

Tribute Wall

“ Condolences to Ann and family. Dennis was a great person, worked with him for 30+ years. Fred and Chantal

---

Fred Knappenberger - December 04, 2019 at 08:20 AM