

Donald G. Caldwell

January 31, 1956 - February 5, 2026

Donald G. Caldwell, 70, of Parker, passed away on Thursday, February 5, 2026, at Clarion Hospital after an extended illness. Born in Pittsburgh on January 31, 1956, he was the son of the late James R. Sr. and Dorothy Stern Caldwell. He was a dedicated member of the Parker City Volunteer Fire Department, known for his outstanding success in selling tickets for the annual sportsman nights. A passionate outdoorsman, he found great joy in hunting and fishing, and he took pride in his extensive firearms collection. Don was also a skilled carpenter and mechanic. He is survived by his wife Felicia Caldwell, whom he married on October 11, 1980. His daughter, Zabrina Caldwell of Parker, and his son, Charles Caldwell of Parker. Three grandchildren: Zachary, Nevaeh, and Kenny. Numerous nieces and nephews. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by three siblings: Carol McCoy, Jimmy Caldwell, and Linda Caldwell.

Friends will be received at the H. Jack Buzard Funeral Home in Parker (201 S. Wayne Ave) on Tuesday, February 10th, from 12pm-2pm. A Fireman's Service will be held at 2pm, conducted by the Parker City Volunteer Fire Department Station 39.

“Donnie was “one of the good guys”! Very welcoming, kind, a gentleman and helpful. It was very obvious he loved Felicia & his family. He had strong opinions, but not disrespectful. He was always so nice to me & I so appreciated his goodness. I am deeply saddened for his family, but I also know he left all who loved him, with loving memories, to find some hope of peace & comfort. May his spirit live on through you.
