“ I work at Foxburg Pizza and always had to smile when Gary came in. He always greeted each one of us by name even if we were in the back washing dishes. He was always polite, even tempered & kind. We had conversations, Lisa, about your daughters & similarities between yours & mine. Shayla living out of the country & then multiple weddings at the same time. He asked often about my girls & was very thoughtful. We were all shocked about his passing & will miss seeing him. We also miss the "biker gang", Brad, that came in every week like clockwork. May God comfort you all & give you strength in the days ahead.
