

Helen Faye (Kelly) Leavy

September 24, 1929 - March 22, 2018

HELEN FAYE KELLY LEAVY, 88, of foxburg passed away Thursday morning (3-22-18) at Lakeland Regional Health Center following an illness.

Born in Bruin, Pa., on September 24, 1929, she was the daughter of the late Lincoln and Flora Stewart Kelly.

Helen was married on December 26, 1950 to Richard A. "Dick" Leavy who passed away October 18, 1992. Following high school graduation, she attended the former Butler Business College. She then became a secretary at the former Knox Glass Corp of Parker.

Helen was always a devoted church worker teaching Sunday School and Bible School at her chosen church. In recent years she was a devoted member of Park Hill Church of God at West Freedom.

She enjoyed watching all types of sports in the company of her son Dick. She was always ready to travel or dine out at the suggestion of her son.

Surviving are her son, Richard J. Leavy of Parker, and a number of nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her brother, Don Kelly, who passed away March 23, 2010.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you today and in the days to come. May the God of all comfort continue to give you the strength to endure with hope in his promise to wipe all tears from pain away and death. He will keep his word and be with you each day until we see his promises come true. Revelation 21:3 & 4 and Acts 24:15
