“ *From cousin Cheryl:
My memories of Jim were always with his loving wife Carol. They were a team in everything they did. They enjoyed their family, and aimed to make anyone feel loved. They traveled together..laughed together..worshipped together, and loved each other unconditionally. They shared their lives with everyone in many ways. Jim was so supportive of his wife, and worked hard for many years to support his family. I know he is much happier to be back with his wife, in the presence of the Lord. No more pain..no more heartache. Back to the love he knew all his life.*
