“ I was heartbroken when heard that Bonehead had passed. We both worked together at Mike's in the 90's.early 2000, he was the cook and I was one of the bartenders, he would make me laugh everyday, I have so many memorys of him, that they all wouldn't fit in here, I remember in 1996, I was preg. With my son, he said he wanted to go into the delivery room with me with a catchers mit. And be down by 1st. So he could hauler, hey batter, batter, and catch him coming out....lol that's just one uncensored memory I can tell Haha, but he was also a carimg guy. He would walk across to AJ'S Ice cream and get me my hot fudge sundae, everyday while pregnant. That was my craving....sadly I didn't get to see bonehead for some years....But my heart will be with him.....sending my condolences to Jim's Family.....I was so thankful for haveing him in my life for as long as I did...
