

James Francis Marron

July 28, 1946 - January 13, 2026

James Francis Marron, age 79, passed away peacefully at his home on January 13, surrounded by his loving family.

Jim was born on July 28, 1946, in New Castle, Pennsylvania, the son of John “Bud” Marron and Elizabeth “Betty” O’Donnell Marron. He attended and graduated from Allegheny Clarion Valley Schools in the old Emlenton building, where he was a standout student-athlete. Jim excelled in both golf and basketball and proudly held a career basketball scoring record of 996 points, a fact he would want everyone to know was achieved before the three-point line ever existed.

Jim attended Clarion University, where he played on the freshman basketball team before being drafted into the United States Army. He served honorably in Okinawa during the Vietnam War, attaining the rank of Specialist Fourth Class (SP4). Following his military service, Jim returned to Clarion University and completed his degree in Business Administration.

In 1982, Jim began a long and dedicated career as Director of Human Resources at Central Electric Cooperative, where he worked until his retirement in 2008. Retirement, however, marked the beginning of his second career, as he became co-owner of the Allegheny Grille in Foxburg, a business he poured his heart into and took great pride in.

Jim was deeply committed to his community and served in many meaningful roles throughout his life. He was a founding member of the area-wide Jaycees and the Foxburg Chamber of Commerce, and he served for several years on the AC Valley School Board. A lifelong coach and mentor, Jim shared his love of sports by serving as the AC Valley Varsity Basketball Coach, shaping countless young lives along the way.

Jim was an avid golfer, hunter, and fisherman. Golf was especially close to his heart and one of his favorite ways to spend time with those he loved most. He cherished countless hours on the golf course with his brothers, wife, and sons. He also treasured the many days spent in the woods hunting and fishing alongside his sons and grandsons.

Above all else, Jim's greatest joy and purpose in life was his family. He married the love of his life, Ann Jenkins, on August 11, 1973, at St. Agnes Church in West Mifflin. Together, they shared 52 years of marriage built on love, laughter, and unwavering partnership.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, John "Bud" and Elizabeth "Betty" Marron; his beloved son, Patrick James Marron; and his parents-in-law, Jack and Elsie Jenkins of West Mifflin.

In addition to his wife Ann, Jim is survived by his sons, Michael (Jennifer) of Parker and Christopher (Erin) of Gibsonia; his beloved grandchildren, Jonathan and William; his brothers Jerry (Lynn) of Foxburg, John (Barb) of Johnstown, and Leo (Susan) of Foxburg; his sister Patricia (Bob) of Foxburg; and his in-laws Nancy Jenkins of Pittsburgh and Tim (Jean) Jenkins of Ohio. He is also survived by many cherished nieces and nephews: Ted (Brittany) of Mercer; Lori (Dave) and their daughters Allison (Seth) and Amelia of Foxburg; Emily (Christina) of Orlando; Leah (Andy) and their sons Dominic and Joseph of Foxburg; Megan (Jason) and their children Jack and Eve of Foxburg; and Lauren (Dan) and their sons John and Will of Ohio.

Friends will be received at the H. Jack Buzard Funeral Home in Parker (201 S. Wayne Ave.) on Sunday (1/18/2026) from 12-2pm & 4-6pm. Military Honors will be held the following day (1/19/2026) at 10:45am by the VFW and American Legion of Parker, preceding the Mass of Christian Burial at 11am at Saint Michael the Archangel Roman Catholic Church in Emlenton. Interment will take place at Parker Presbyterian Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made via check to AC Valley Athletics with the memo of "Jim Marron" and mailed to PO Box 100, Foxburg, PA 16036.

“ Jim was the first boys basketball coach to hire me to work his varsity games. I was honored to work his games! Loved seeing him and Ann at the Foxburg to grab food and talk basketball. When he retired he was at all the home games and when I worked I would always have a good chat with him. Jim you were one of the best coaches to officiate for!! Those memories will always be remembered. Sympathies to everyone whom knew Jim...we lost a great man. 🏀💕🙏

“ Chris, Erin, and family - We are absolutely heartbroken to hear about your father's passing. We always admired him as a true gentleman. It is so clear where you get your kindness, your giving nature, and your strength from. You truly are a reflection of him. We're holding you and your family close in our thoughts and prayers during this incredibly difficult time.

“ So long Jim,
In truth I wish I had gotten to know you better, but the circles of our lives almost never intersected and then only briefly.

It was, however, a pleasure to witness your many successes and accomplishments. Congratulations.

Know too, that all of us of A-C V '64 deeply appreciated your generously hosting our many recent reunions at the "Grille." It made all the difference.

May God rest you well from a life well and honorably lived.

Howie,

“Jim Marron was the kind of man whose presence made life feel steadier and warmer simply because he was there. A devoted family man, loyal friend, and true gentleman, Jim lived his life with quiet strength, generosity, and an open heart.

He found joy in the simple, meaningful moments—early mornings on the golf course, the calm of the outdoors while hunting, and time spent surrounded by those he loved most. These weren't just hobbies to Jim; they were reflections of who he was: patient, focused, and deeply appreciative of life's gifts.

Above all else, Jim loved his family. They were his pride, his purpose, and his greatest accomplishment. He showed his love not through grand gestures, but through consistency—by showing up, by listening, and by being present. Jim was always there for everyone, no questions asked. If you needed help, guidance, or simply a reassuring voice, Jim answered without hesitation.

His kindness left a lasting mark on all who knew him. Jim never sought recognition; he simply did what was right, offering support with humility and grace. His legacy lives on in the countless lives he touched, the lessons he taught by example, and the love he gave so freely.

Though his absence is deeply felt, Jim Marron's spirit will forever remain in the stories shared, the memories cherished, and the love carried forward by his family and friends. He will be profoundly missed and lovingly remembered.

We will miss you every day ... no ... every minute. 🥹

Bob and I have known Jim and Ann for about 17 years, and that is short compared to the literally life- long friends they have. They have been our intro to Foxburg and our closest friends here. We will miss him every single day!

To the Marron family I have many memories of growing up on Ash Alley just down the road from the Marrons. The most significant memory would be the time my sister and I were playing at the Marrons and we got stuck in the mud because they were building a new home. My two aunts who lived with us...Also the time y parents found Jim and I playing in our basement in the coal bin and oh what a mess.

My heart aches for. fro you, Ann and family
