“ We were saddened to hear of John's passing. He was a great role model to my husband Dick, who also served in Vietnam. As a child Dick did much fishing, swimming and boating on the "river" with John. John and his family were so wonderful to Dick, meeting him in Seattle, having a great dinner for him as he left to serve his tour of duty in Vietnam. We always enjoyed our trips to West Monterey and visiting with the Mong family. Dick was able to spend some precious time with John and Jan this past winter and they reminisced about old times. Dick will travel to PA to personally convey his respects to John and family. He will be missed.
