I cannot express my sympathy for your family! God said that He won't give us more than we can handle, but we have to wonder at times if that's true. Your grief must be unbearable.

However, what I have learned is that God does give us strength that we never knew we had. He does hold us up and carry us across the hot sand that we can't bear to tread on alone!

Your family has always been so close to mine and so many loved ones have passed, but we know we will all be together again one at a time. You have been on my mind a lot lately, and last night I had a strange dream that involved, Bus, Hope and Randy! I have no idea what it means, but it was good to see Bus and Hope again. It was so real that it was as good as a real visit from them!

I have so many memories growing up of them. There's so much water under the bridge. Yes, we are blood and will always be through the generations to come.

God bless you all, you will get through this difficult time, Life is always changing, and we have to change with it.

Love to you all and know that I am always here for you at least in thought and prayer!

Carol

I am sending love and condolences to Kayla's family at this time. I am so sorry for your loss. I graduated with Kayla and was a good friend even after high school. We lost contact for a few years when I moved to Pittsburgh for work but my memories with Kayla were very fond. She had the biggest heart and was so caring for people. I will never forget how she touched my life and I would give anything to have her back. I pray at this time anything can ease the pain the family is going through.

“ Joyce and Family,

You have my deepest sympathy in the loss of Kayla, I remember what a sweet little girl she was and what a joy she was to you and Nim. Thank goodness for our memories. Unfortunately, I know what the severe loss of a child feels like but it will get better. Take care and you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Fred, Joyce and Family:
We were so very,very saddened to hear the news about Kayla.
Please know we share in your grief. I keep thinking back to that little girl 20 years ago that would come to my door to ask to play with Luke. She would get him up in the mornings in the summertime quite often. Thank God for memories. Please know you all our in our prayers.
