“ Over 50 years ago a very little angel walked down the aisle of the Memorial Church of Our Father in Foxburg as one of my flower girls along with her cousins Jackie and Julie. SO beautiful in their red velvet gowns and so innocent in the life ahead. I remember their shoes being off as they played at the alter and the moments we shared together. Wonderful memories and Lisa is now flying with her Mom, Dad, and other family members with no pain in the palms of God's hand. Rest in peace and you are missed and loved by all your family here on Earth. My prayers are with the entire and I share in their sorrow. Cousin Sandy Harnish-Garris
