

Lois Ann Miller

July 21, 1954 - July 19, 2017

Lois A. Luce Miller, 62, of Kennerdell, PA., formerly of Eau Claire and Clintonville, passed away early Wednesday (July 19, 2017) morning at the UPMC Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh after complications of a sudden illness. Lois was born in Salem, OH., on July 21, 1954 to the late Gene Davis and Evelyn Luce. She was married to the late Brent A. Miller who preceded in death December of 2005. Lois enjoyed spending time with her grand children, out doors with her late dog Destiny Ann, gardening, and walking through the woods. She had a wonderful passion for helping others which is evident in her nearly 40 year career as a Nurses Aid. She began her career at a young age with an establishment in Salem, OH, then later continued at Autumn Grove Care Center in Harrisville, PA., and has recently celebrated 14 years with Trinity Living Center in Grove City, PA. Lois was still working at Trinity, until her health prevented her from doing so and even then she showed a yearning to be there for "Her People". She leaves a legacy of dedication, strong work ethic that was second to none and will be remembered for taking care of others even before herself. Lois is survived by Two Sons: Brent L. Miller of Franklin, PA; William G. Miller of Butler, PA.; A daughter Melissa E .Miller of Altoona, PA.; A Step Daughter: Michelle L. Reed of Cambell, OH; A Granddaughter: Alexis M Miller; And two Grandsons: Evan Kennard & Micheal McDonald. In addition to her parents and husband, Lois was preceded in death by a sister: Barb Kennedy; and a stepson in-law Steve McDonald.

An Erisian Good-Bye

*We are standing on a dock next to a great ship.
As she leaves the dock, we feel a great sense of loss,
For she is a great ship.
As we watch the ship sail away, she gets smaller and smaller against the horizon.
Eventually, the ship disappears, and someone behind us says,
"There! she's gone!"
But, as someone says "she's gone!",
On the other side of the horizon, someone says,
"There! She comes!"
And that is dying.*

*Our deepest, heartfelt, condolences.

“ I had the pleasure of really getting to know Lois while doing aide work beside her. She truly was a special woman who made a difference in so many lives--mine included! I'm unable to convey how much she will be missed. I'll remember her fondly always. My deepest condolences to her boys and those closest to her during this time. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
