“ Dear Scott and family, My heart is broken with Marcie’s passing. She was a remarkable person and her passing is such a loss. She is gone too early but I’m sure God has a plan for her. Marcie and I worked across the country from each other, but whenever I was back to Boyers for work, Marcie was always one I would catch-up with. In our “smoking years”, we would sit out in the underground area, talk and laugh as we told stories. Marcie was always one of my resource contacts and I could always count on her to find the answer. She always had a smile that would light up the room. I will miss my friend and cherish the memories I hold dear. Prayers and love, Marianne Robinette

“Marcie had been known to us as Aunt Marcie for many years and then promoted to MeMe when our son was born. She carried those titles proudly and put a lot of love into them. We shared countless precious memories together and have gone through many joys and valleys in the seasons of our lives together. Over the last few weeks, she undoubtedly knew how many people loved her and we are so thankful to God to have had that time to express our love for her. While we have earnestly been praying for a different outcome, we trust that God’s plan is always perfect and that he works good in our lives again from time of great loss and eventually turns our mourning into joy. It is with resurrection hope that we look forward to being with MeMe again one day. In the meantime, we will continue to be grateful for her life and her presence in ours as we honor her memory alongside the rest of our family. ❤️❤️❤️
