

Myrna L. Sisco

April 22, 1927 - November 1, 2025

MYRNA L. SISCO, 98, of Grove City, formerly Hilliards, entered eternal rest with her Lord and Saviour Saturday (11-01-25) at Quality life Services in Grove City, where she resided.

Born in Allegheny Township, Butler Co. on April 22, 1927, she was daughter of the late John Clyde and Myrna Mae Gordon McKee.

She was married to Wayne C.. Sisco on June 24, 1944 and he passed July 18, 2005.

Myrna and her husband were longtime members of the former Argentine United Methodist Church, where she served as pianist over thirty years, taught Sunday school, and served as secretary-treasurer. Following the closing of that church, they became active and members of the Scrubgrass Stone Church in Scrubgrass Township, near Eau Claire. Again, Myrna answered the call and served as church organist many years.

The husband-wife team began their own ministry to many nursing homes and shut-ins with guitar music, singing, and scripture.

She is survived by three daughters: June Klein of Ford City, Linda Hetzler of West Sunbury, and Julia Chorle of Beaver Falls; six grandchildren, and many great, great-great grand grandchildren, as well as nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by three grandchildren, two sons-in-law: Ron Klein and Wayne Hetzler; also three sisters and two brothers.

Visitation will be from 11:00 AM to NOON Wednesday ((11-05-25) at Scrubgrass Stone Church, Stone Church Rd., Scrubgrass Twp. Where funeral services will be held conducted at NOON with Pastor Dennis Barger, Church Pastor officiating. She will then be laid to rest with her husband at Mt. Varnum Cemetery, Washington Twp., Butler County.
