Nancy Ada Walker Pollock, 83, of Bruin, passed away after an extended illness on Saturday (3/21/26) at New Haven Court in Butler, surrounded by her family. She was born in Butler on January 9, 1943, and was the daughter of the late William and Doris Wescott Walker. She graduated from the former Fairview Township Karns City High School, now Karns City Area High School, in 1960. She married Vernon Pollock, who survives, on August 26, 1961. She enjoyed taking care of her beautiful flowers both inside and outside her home. She was a great baker and enjoyed cooking for her family. A talented seamstress, she sewed numerous quilts. She and her husband enjoyed traveling across the US and had the opportunity to visit England twice to explore their heritage. She loved her three grandsons and was looking forward to welcoming her great-granddaughter this summer. In addition to her husband, she is survived by her Daughter, Brenda (Dave) Skidmore of Valencia. Son: Gary (Christine) Pollock of Pittsburgh. Three Grandsons: Braden (Dawn) Skidmore of Butler; Ian (Jenna) Pollock of Pittsburgh; and Darin (Autumn) Skidmore of Butler. Numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Rev. William M. Walker.
