“ Nathan asked me once how I dealt with getting old. I could only say “by remembering loved ones who are no longer with us”. RIP Nathan. Wish you were here. Catch the wind. Old man Dan

“ I worked with Nate briefly at the grove city country club and just those few times, he made a memorable impact. He fit in perfect. He was absolutely himself and made my job so fun and entertaining. He was so easy to get along with. I’m pretty sure we had the weirdest conversations, no small talk (which I hate) and it was the best. Rest easy my friend.
