“ From the time Julie and Jamie got together Pat welcomed me into her family as if I was one of her own. Pat was there for me always, she was there for my wedding, my baby shower, my grandbabies baby showers and always was a part of every big thing in my life. She always asked and was genuinely happy to talk with me about my family and my life. She will be missed and I will always love her like she was my mother in law. Pat give Jerry a kiss and have a wonderful reunion with him! I love you Julie, Jamie, Jess, Joe and Jacci!

Love always Lisa Sutton, yes sister of Julie!!

“ I'm so sorry to hear about your mother's passing. I just learned today that she was my grandfather's niece and I wish I had gotten the opportunity to know her. Even though we haven't met, please know that I'm keeping you in my prayers and asking God to bring you peace and comfort.”

“ She was my favorite teacher. Third grade. We lost a classmate that year. We all went to school that day, and she read the Bible, had prayer and had a sad recess that day. She lifted our spirits. It was the best year of school I been there. She is the most awesome lady in my book.

“ My Sister Pat was a woman of Faith, Grace, and Love.

She radiated beauty—inside and out—and her presence brought warmth and light to everyone around her. Words fall short in capturing how deeply she touched our lives and how much she meant to us.

Her legacy lives on in the hearts of her family, friends, and the many students she inspired. The impact of her kindness, wisdom, and unwavering faith will echo through generations.

Though our hearts ache with her absence, we find comfort in knowing she is now in the loving embrace of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Her journey continues in heaven, and I hold onto the promise that we will be reunited one day.

We love you, Pat. Until we meet again.

With all our hearts,

*Your little brother

I grew up with Patty in West Freedom; sang together in the church choir. I don't think I saw her since before I was married and moved away in 1969. My sincere condolences to her family. I look forward to seeing her again in Heaven one day!
