“ As a native son of Freeport, and just a year ahead of Ralph in school, I remember Ralph very well. His smile, as captured in the photo accompanying this obituary, is what stands out in my mind. While our paths have not crossed in many years, I was saddened to have read of his passing. My deepest sympathy and condolences are extended to the entire Meyer family. Rest well, Ralph. May you play on in that marching band in the beyond.

Sincerely,

My memories of Ralph go back to performing together on so many different occasions. Your entire family was a gift to the greateer music community and Ralph was a vital part of that. Probably the best memories are of us caroling in Freeport and then retiring to the Meyer home for great conversation and reflection.WE feel for your loss.
