

Richard Ward

October 29, 1930 - December 22, 2019

B. RICHARD WARD, 89, of Hilliards, near Eau Claire, entered Eternal Rest early Sunday morning at his residence surrounded by his family following a valiant battle with Mesothelioma.

Born in Lynn, Mass. on October 29, 1930, he was the son of the late Bernard and Mabel Payne Ward.

A very dedicated Christian gentleman since his teenage years, he attended the East Unity Church in Cherry Valley, Pa.

Mr. Ward earned certification from the Philadelphia Bible Institute and then pursued a Bachelor of Arts degree from Grace College in Winona Lake, Indiana.

He spent over thirty years in education, teaching in both public and private schools.

He loved traveling to western parts of the country where he could spend time hiking and working in photography. He also had a great love of enjoying music.

Mr. Ward married the former Patricia Stalker in 1960 at Bethel United Methodist Church in Eau Claire, and she survives.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter and husband, Christina (Randy) Huffman of Longmont, Colo., and a nephew Richard Ward and family of New Hampshire.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother Donald Ward.

“ I only met him a few times when they came out to Colorado to visit Christina. He was always a wonderful gentleman and clearly loved his family. Our hearts go out to Mom, Christina, Randy, and the rest of the family. May you cherish the wonderful memories of his life in this sacred time.
