“ To Robert, a person that is one in a million. I will always remember you, the places you always invited my family too or the bow you gave me that I'll never get rid of. You took me hunting fishing and with your kids to do fun stuff. You became a father figure to me and I didn't ever get to thank you for everything you did for me. But heaven called your name and it was goodbye, but goodbyes aren't always forever. Till then you'll always be with us... I love you Mr. Robert ☐

“ I will never forget all of the times you have been there for me when it came to riding a bike or needing help overcoming that hill climb on my quad or when i was hungry and you would take me on nightly drives to taco bell, i'll never forget the time i was in a hitting slump for softball and you would help me get out of it and got me back on the bases you would come to my practices and every single game and stand by the cages and be my number one supporter you would play catch with me instead of the other girls so i could warm up to your “fast pitches” for the game you always talked about going back to the beach and making sure we were always loved, you would always have a joke to crack and there was never a dull moment with you if you ever got mad at me you would always end up apologizing for your attitude you owned up to all your mistakes and you were the best dad i could have ever asked for, ur soul and spirit will live in easton and i and i will never forget your wise words you would tell me on their nightly car rides with easton you and i. You always made sure you knew how proud you were of me when i had good grades and you were and still are my motivation to keep them high and make big things happen in the future you always let me know you loved me no matter what happened and made sure you told me to always say see you later instead of goodbye because goodbye is forever and i would always see you again. you always showed up and that's the best gift i could have ever asked for thanks to you i know how to draw a bow back and stand up for myself when i get into problems with friends and lastly, you always taught me how to forgive someone and never hold a grudge because ilife was too short to hold anything over someones head and that everyone makes mistakes and no one's perfect, i want to thank you on here for EVERYTHING you have done for me and this family and it will always feel different having an empty seat at the table for thanksgiving and christmas but i know your still sitting there in that seat you i know you have the best seat in the house up in heaven looking down on easton and i and all your friends and family( which you had a lot of and always seemed to run into many of them at walmart and talk for hours) but most importantly, you always would try to win the i love you more game, in my opinion you didn't but in your opinion you did. i love you forever and always and take care of grandma until i see you two again sometime. i will always be with you and i love you so much daddy❤️

I didn't know Bob personally but we would always exchange hellos as we were entering or exiting Iron Mt. space. This was such a tragic situation but I will forever remember the man who always wore a smile on his face and had a friendly hello for someone who was a stranger to him. God Bless his kids and family & everyone who was privileged to know him.

I worked with BJ for several years at the mine. He was a great kid....hard worker, honest, and helped anyone without being asked. He took me to my first Steelers game. Helped me when I took up archery. Made me laugh. He stayed in touch even after I left 22 yrs ago....call out of the blue, stopped by the house...always left with both of us laughing. He'd ask about my kids, and tell me about his. He was a very proud dad. He'll be forever remembered and missed by everyone who took the time to know and love him. Rest easy my friend.

“ Bob used to be Kevin (Wyant) & mines neighbor when we was kids, always a great time and fun to be around. Then we all grew up and went our seprate ways but never lost touch, between friends and family, to having a drink at the bar, to seeing each other at the mines for work, always seeing each other. Going to miss his smiling face and nice "hello's" in passing each other at work. Forever missed but never Forgotten,

Love always
