“ When i was in the 6th grade i did not have any friends and i was new. i recently google searched Shane and was shocked to see he has passed. Shane was very nice to me and invited me into his friendship circle. Because of him i had friends. He was the only person who rivaled my intellect and even beat me in academics time and time again. he was so smart and such a good friend. I am so sad to hear of this and wish i knew what happened. -Robert
