“ To describe Sheila - I could say so many things. She was beyond a doubt, a very caring and selfless person who had a heart of gold. So many memories of my partnership with her from laughter to tears to late night conversations to her cancer diagnosis. No matter what, she handled everything with grace and humility. She was by far the strongest person I knew. Sheila, may you rest easy and run with the giraffes as much as you want. My trips to the antique shops will never be the same, but you would have wanted me to carry on and be strong. I miss you so much and love you, always.

“ I have known Sheila for over 30 years. We worked together at a few different companies and became good friends. She had a heart of gold and an infectious laugh. She would do anything for anyone. And her daughter truly was the center of her universe. As were her close friends. I remember the nights of us being at work messaging each other while we were waiting for that darn giraffe April to have that baby and watching the live streams...lol. You are truly going to be missed terribly Sheila. Love and hugs sent to heaven my friend.
