“ Debbie, Ed, Lonnie, Randy, Mike,
Sorry for your loss of Aunt Sue, she was a very devoted wife and mother. When we start to grow up its hard to believe how time flies, but we will always have our memories of our childhood, playing with your cousins with the Aunts and Uncles looking on. That's the memory I have of Sue, and they were all good memories.
You all have my sympathy.

Sue was a great Lady. We went to church together at Parker Church of God. She was a great Sunday school teacher, and just an all around good Christian Woman. She knew her Bible and lived it. I will always cherish her memory.
