“ My name is Harold from Canada and i want to give thanks the great man called Dr.Zabaza who saved me from the court case i had. I was in some kind of trouble and i was charged to court with a lot of evidence hanging all over my neck so i was so scared because i taught i was going to be jailed. I had no choice than to look for back up solution. During my search on the internet i came across Dr.Zabaza contact information after contacting Dr.Zabaza he told me that everything will be okay. And on the day of my court hearing i was so surprised that the Judge cancelled all evidence against me and granted me bail. All these were possible through the great powers of Dr.Zabaza and you can contact him at: zabaza.logan@yahoo.com or call him on +2348182620374

My husband left me and said he no longer loves me after spending 9years together, We have a beautiful daughter of 6 Years. “ Janet, I can never fully express in words the sadness I feel for you in the loss of your dear Teddy. My heart breaks to think of you without the love of your life, but I know that you will never let his memory fade. You were the person who loved every story even if you had heard it several times before. You were the person who laughed at all of his jokes. You were the person who believed in Ted and together you made dreams come true. Teddy will live on in your sweet memories. We Love you.

“ Tony,

I have to say you made me smile speaking of "Teddyisms". My entire family referred to Teddy sayings as Teddyisms, as well as people at the VA. Please let me know some of Teddy older Teddyisms, there may be some I haven't heard.

*Thank you, and God Bless
Janet*

Janet Shawkey Sandifer - January 15, 2019 at 01:02 PM

“ For a man who is never at a loss for words, when I heard the news that Teddy was gone I was speechless. I sat back and simply remembered one of the most real men I have ever known. I met Teddy in Fort Hamilton, NY shortly after we both left the Military and continued our government service as civilian law enforcement officers. Both being former soldiers, we stuck together like traditional battle buddies. Teddy being older than I, was always passing on sound advice from his own personal experiences. Except Teddy passed on that advice in comical "Teddyisms". For example: I was moving boxes from a storage area one day and Teddy strolls up and says, "Hey Tony, instead of carrying those by hand, why don't you let me get the dolly they have at the station house and I will come back with it and help you." I replied, "Thanx Teddy, but I think it can be done by hand." Teddy replied, "They say if you rub sand fast enough it turns into glass, I don't think they meant by hand. I'll get us some cold pop and I'll be back with the dolly". So I took a break and waited for Teddy with the dolly. Teddy comes back with the dolly and 2 cold sodas and says, "Here you go. The way I see it we have 2 options. We can either drink the pops and get this done, or we can get this done and then sip the pops and rub some sand".

Teddy was as real as they come. A take me for who I am or don't, type of guy. A guy who was honest, with an integrity second to none and a good friend. I learned many things from Teddy, but one thing that has always stayed with me is when Teddy and I parted ways, because he was moving and I was taking another job. He said, "Remember, always take the job that requires you to be honest and keep things simple. The job that requires you to lie and cheat, is way too much work and isn't worth the money."

On our last day working together Teddy said to me, "I won't make any promises I can't keep. I won't say I will call and stay in touch. I hate the phone. What I can say is that the next time we speak, whether it be next week or 10 years from now, I promise it will feel like we just spoke the day before. You always welcomed in my home brother".

Rest in peace my brother, you will never be forgotten. Teddyisms

*live in my household, and I always give you the credit.
My condolences to Teddy's wife and family. Your in our prayers.*

“ Sam, Thank you for the kind words the ear-piercing twang is why I fell in love with Teddy. He was/is the love of my life as well. I think God has a pretty good idea of what he is getting into, after all he broke the mold when he made Teddy.

*God Bless
Janet*

Janet Shawkey Sandifer - January 15, 2019 at 01:02 PM

“ I met Teddy in 1994 when I transferred to Fort Dix, NJ. I was eventually appointed as the Company Operations Sergeant and Teddy was my assistant.

I will never forget how I was always amazed by Teddy's candor and the keen ability he had to express himself... in no uncertain terms. Until I became familiar with Teddy's style of verbal communication skills, I wasn't sure whether his responses and quick tongue to me were meant to be insulting or just part of his vernacular and let's not forget that damn ear-piercing twang in his voice!

Teddy proved to be one of my most loyal soldiers in those days and I could count on Teddy to accomplish any task given to him. He may not have gotten the job done in the most "orthodox" manner but I could always count on him to have my back. I always knew when I got that wink and a smile Teddy was on the job.

Teddy and I remained friends after I retired and we went our separate ways in fact, I was honored when he asked me to be his Best Man when he married the love of his life, Janet. We continued to communicate throughout the years but recently we broke contact for a while until we reconnected couple of months ago. Same ole' Teddy... never missed a beat.

I will truly miss Teddy Sandifer because when I had thought of him over the past 22 years, I knew that I had a true and loyal friend out there and that's saying a lot especially in these times.

In the Orthodox Christian religion, we believe that when the body dies, the spirit goes to a better place where there is no more sadness, sorrow or tears—just eternal happiness. In this case, I hope God knew what he was getting Himself into when He called Teddy home.

To Janet, Norma and Waymon Sandifer and the entire family go our most sincere condolences.

May the memory of this great soldier and friend be eternalâ€¦

“ Janet, I am finally signing Teddy's guest book. It is truly sad how this all ended but we all know that it is not even close to being over. I am sure the day Our Lord took Teddy home he already had the rest of the plan in motion for you and our whole Family. Truly Loved and Truly Missed.
