“ So sorry for everyone's loss, Tim was a truly good person. We had just reconnected and were going on sxs rides together. Tim had mentioned that he wanted to get together more this year, and we were supposed to go to a concert together. You will be missed Tim, may you rest in peace 🙏

“ Uncle Tim LOVED his matchbox cars. He showcased them like they were precious gems. He also loved listening to music. I remember he used to be fascinated by KISS. He would crank them up and go to sleep with it like that. My daughter was born on his birthday and he thought that was the greatest thing and called her his birthday Angel..well now you are the Angel. Fly high and give grandma a kiss from me.. until we meet again

“ Tim was always the nicest young man growing up. He would always take the time to stop and say hello and was quietly shy around a group. As he got a little older, he still had a reserved quietness, but would always stop and say hi to those he knew, and chat a bit. He had a caring heart, and a zest for life, and lived his family. He was a good man. Rest easy, Tim.
