“ Mother in law, it was my pleasure having you share space, time & meals with you for your last two months on Earth. Watching you come out of your shell, feeling better about yourself & realizing what true friends do for each other made me feel like a positive influence. It felt so good to be appreciated and repeatedly reminded how much you love Matt & I together. Unconditionally I loved you to. As I sat next to your lifeless shell I still felt your presence in the room. I'm glad we shared prayers for the less fortunate and found laughter in the goobers that surrounded us. I know you found peace before departing because I saw your glow brighten every day. You weren't just a friend, you were my family. I promise to keep Matt on track, so hear my prayers and send me patience and strength. TTFN I'll see you soon.
