“ *The 1st time I met you, I sent my 8 yr old son, Morgan, to go off camping with you and your dad. All I knew was he lived below my Uncle's old place. I trust the world ...?
How was I to know that later in life, that your son Waylon and my Grandsons, Maverick & Harrison, would grow up to play together!!
This only goes to show, how small the world is ... and now how much more smaller it is without you in it.
Life is too short... how long is it going to take to realize this 🤔.
Rest in peace young man... 💕*

Thanks for always brightening up the work day and making 5 come just a little faster I met you when I was 14 years old working for my dad laying brick and now I'm about the age you were then, was very happy to see you enjoy roofing and doing your own thing. You had so much left to do but I know Waylon will carry on your legacy in ways you could never imagine. Never understood how much you loved that boy because I was just a boy myself. Thank you for the short time you got to spend here on earth. My deepest sympathy to all of the Whitlatch family he was one of a kind and will be missed greatly you raised a fine young man with the biggest heart and smile. Look over us up there Ty
