

William Drew Kelly

March 28, 1989 - March 24, 2016

William Drew Kelly, 26, of Parker, Pa., passed away after an accident Friday evening March 24th. Born in Clarion, Pa., on March 28, 1989 he was the son of the late Henry William Kelly and Jamie Bowser Myers who survives. He was a 2007 graduate of the Allegheny Clarion Valley High School. Will was employed as a laborer in the sheeting and shoring industry with Berkel and Co., out of Kansas. He was a member of the Laborers International Union of North America Local Union 1410. He was a member of the Knox Sportsman Club as well as a social member of the Parker VFW post 7073. Will was a fun spirit who loved adventure and the outdoors. He enjoyed camping and spending time outside, from racing dirt bikes at switchback to spending time on the family farm. Will also enjoyed shooting pool. He had a zest for life and it was infectious to all those around him, most notably his friends and family whom he loved. In addition to his mother Jamie Myers, Will is survived by his Step-father John Myers both of Parker. One Sister: Emily Myers of Parker and One Brother: Kolby (Samantha) Eaker of Parker. His maternal Grandparents: Loren and Marilyn Bowser of Parker. Four Aunts: April (Marvin) Gibson; Amy (David) Charney; Kelly (John) Young; and Diane (William) Gurner. One Uncle: Loren (Michelle) Bowser Jr. Eight Cousins: Justin, Josh, and Kason Charney; Corey, Bailey and Zack Williams; Summer and Colt Young. A former Step-father Kevin Fulmer. In addition to his father, Will was preceded in death by his paternal step-grandparents Robert and Flored Myers. A celebration of life memorial service will be held at the convenience of the family.
